

10 Wildflowers in Dawlish – What can you see in April and May?

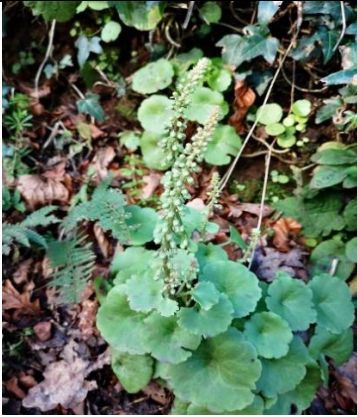

These flowers were all seen in the local area in April/May 2020. How many can you find? Some are easier to spot than others!

If you do see any, please send a picture to:

david.hutton@ww.actionclimateteignbridge.org with the date and location.

Alexanders Smyrnium olusatrum
Big and bushy, common on roadsides

Pennywort Umbilicus rupestris
Common in hedgerows

Blackthorn (Sloe) Prunus spinosa
Flowers before Mayflower (Hawthorn)

English Bluebell Hyacinthoides non-scripta
Also Spanish varieties (more upright) and hybrids. Sometimes white

Wood Sorrell Oxalis acetosella
Very attractive small flowers

Red Valerian Centranthus ruber
Common along roadsides/hedges

Ivy leaved toadflax Cymbalaria muralis
Common on walls/ kerbsides

Lady's Smock Cardamine pratensis
Found in a few grassy places

Cuckoo-pint Arum maculatum
Common in shady places

Red Campion Silene dioica
Common in hedgerows